A BRIEF HISTORY OF ROUND ROCK

1851: A small settlement formed on the shores of Brushy Creek, centered around a large, round rock located in the middle of the creek. The first postmaster called the community Brushy Creek.

1854: Brushy Creek was renamed Round Rock in honor the now famous rock.

1856: Round Rock was included on the Texas Land Office maps.

1860: Houses and businesses began to sprout along the north shore of Brushy Creek.

1876: International and Great Northern Railroad opened.

1912: Round Rock citizens vote to incorporate as a town. Jack Jordan is elected its first Mayor and City Council meetings.

1939: Round Rock's first movie theater "The Rock" opens.

1972: Round Rock High School begins classes at current campus.

2000: Dell Diamond opens, providing an establishment for the Round Rock Express minor league baseball team.

2000 - present: Continued economic and population growth, becoming one of the local highly sought after suburbs to live in.
