Home Buying Process

So, you've decided to buy a home. Congratulations. However, making the decision to purchase is just the first of many steps. To help you better understand the homebuying process, we've listed everything that happens between the time you decide to buy a home and when it's time to move in.

1 Prepare to shop

2 Compile a list of needs and wants

3 Prequalify for loan and financing

4 Find a real estate broker

8 Execute the contract

7 Negotiate, if necessary

6 Make the offer

5 Visit properties and rank them

9 Open an escrow account and send earnest money

10 Sign documents and complete the closing process

11 Welcome home

Whether it's your first home or one of many, this is an exciting time, and you can always count on Stewart Title to be here to assist you with your real estate needs, no matter what stage you are in on your home ownership journey.

stewart.com/austin

stewart
TITLE